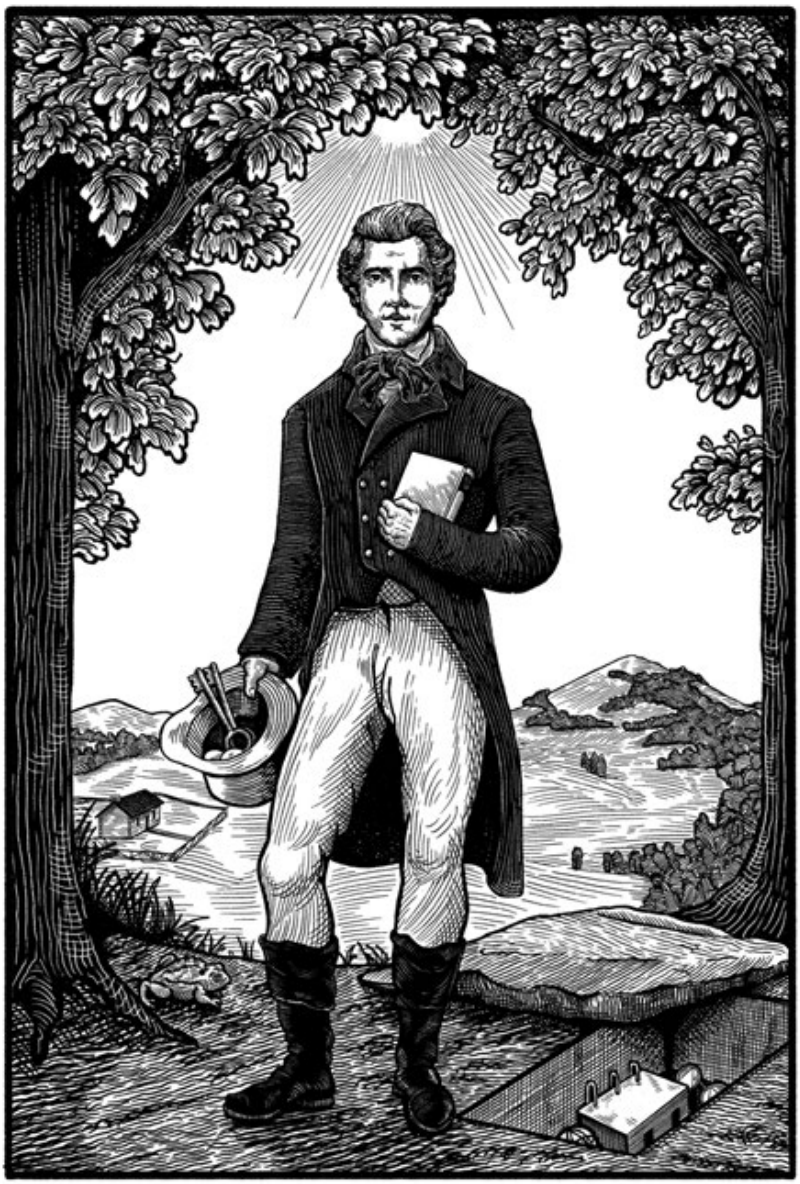
JOSEPH

* AN EPIC *

ZACHARY McLEOD HUTCHINS

JOSEPH

This content downloaded from 134.84.192.103 on Tue, 31 Mar 2026 01:04:55 UTC
All use subject to https://about.jstor.org/terms



"The Prophet Joseph Smith." Godwin.

This content downloaded from 134.84.192.103 on Tue, 31 Mar 2026 01:04:55 UTC
All use subject to https://about.jstor.org/terms

JOSEPH

AN EPIC

ZACHARY McLEOD HUTCHINS

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS PRESS
Urbana, Chicago, and Springfield

This content downloaded from 134.84.192.103 on Tue, 31 Mar 2026 01:04:55 UTC
All use subject to https://about.jstor.org/terms

All illustrations in Joseph have been provided by Godwin, an artist who looks to the work of Albrecht Dürer, Gustave Doré, William Blake, Francisco de Holanda, James Tissot, Hans Baldung, Franklin Booth, and Jacob Boehme for inspiration. His art, which is collected at the Library of Godwin, links The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and Mormon folklore to centuries of Christian art through classical archetypes and the symbolic grammar of mysticism.

© 2025 by Zachary McLeod Hutchins
All rights reserved

Cataloging-in-Publication Data available from the Library of Congress

ISBN 9780252046902 (cloth : alk.)
ISBN 9780252089022 (paper : alk.)
ISBN 9780252048463 (ebook)

This content downloaded from 134.84.192.103 on Tue, 31 Mar 2026 01:04:55 UTC
All use subject to https://about.jstor.org/terms

for my father
in heaven

This content downloaded from 134.84.192.103 on Tue, 31 Mar 2026 01:04:55 UTC
All use subject to https://about.jstor.org/terms

This content downloaded from 134.84.192.103 on Tue, 31 Mar 2026 01:04:55 UTC
All use subject to https://about.jstor.org/terms